[1] Solar Solutions Ltd, have recently joined those companies supporting the EkoSkola Programme run by Nature Trust (Malta) by the donation of a number of books to be distributed among those schools participating in the EkoSkola programme in Malta and Gozo. Today 72 schools around the Maltese Islands are actively participating in this international Programme - four of which have already been awarded the prestigious Green Flag.

The Booklet is called The Earth is our Friend - a story about a boy and his animal friends who hear from plants the animals the problems of climate change and how clean energy can help reduce the impacts of such problems on the environment. This booklet will help to disseminate more information on the issue of climate change and how each one of us can do his and her share to improve the situation.

The booklets were present by Karl Azzopardi, Sales Director for Solar Solutions to Vincent Attard - Executive President of Nature Trust (Malta) and Mr Mario Camenzuli, Johann Gatt and Audrey Gauci - three of the five EkoSkola Coordinators.
